

bYOUTH Summer Camp 2011

When: Friday, July 1th – Monday, July 4th

Where: Cheboygan State Park, Michigan

Who: bYouth & friends.

Activities: Devotionals, games worship, hiking, swimming, volleyball, etc.

Schedule: Breakfast, devotionals, free time, activities, dinner followed by chapel.

Supplies: Make sure to bring along a tent, sleeping bag, appropriate clothes, bug spray, sun block etc. Remember to be prepared for all weather conditions. Breakfast and dinner will be provided, but feel free to bring snacks and drinks for lunch. If you are not sure about what you'll need, we're glad to answer any questions!

Rules: 1) Guys and girls should sleep in separate tents. No exceptions.

2) This is not the opportunity for couples or crushes to be spending alone time together. Our regular standards of affection-less behavior between boys and girls continues at camp. Save it for marriage!

3) No leaving camp unless approved by a youth worker. Also, individual arrival and departure dates should be made known to camp organizers ahead of time.

4) Quiet time begins at 1am and ends at 9am. This doesn't mean you have to go to sleep, but if you want to stay up you have to do it around the fire.

5) Small-group devotionals will be held each day before noon and will be led by your small group leader. We will also share in worship and a short message each evening after dinner.

6) Girls and guys are expected to wear modest and appropriate clothing, especially swimwear. If a youth worker feels your clothing is immodest, you will be required to change. Girls swimwear should be reserved for the beach.

7) Park rules are to be obeyed without exception. Things like fireworks and fire-arms are not allowed. Fines are your personal responsibility to pay.

Consequences: Youth workers will give a first warning for misbehavior. The second warning can result in being required to leave the camp. Warnings will be brought to the attention of parents and church leaders.

Cost: $30/person + $6/vehicle/day parking
